

DURCHSTARTEN - Energy Mentoring by NET

Postal address:
Network Energy Talents e.V.
Zur Wetterwarte 50
01109 Dresden

Privacy Policy

Our data protection information describes how your personal data is processed and what rights you have in accordance with the data protection regulations.

2.1 Whom can data subjects contact?

Network Energy Talents e.V.
Contact:
Wurster, Annika
95448 Bayreuth
Tel.: +49 921 – 50740 2994
E-Mail: annika.wurster@tennet.eu

activeMIND AG
Data Protection Officer:
Weihbrecht, David
80802 München
Tel.: +49 89 – 91 92 94 900
E-Mail: Weihbrecht@activemind.legal

2.2 What is purpose oft he processing?

Your data is processed for the purpose of participation, implementation and evaluation of the project as well as for the evaluation, decision and processing of the requested funding and related activities. The aim is to improve academic success by enabling participants to acquire additional subject-specific and cross-disciplinary skills.

2.3 What ist he legal basis fort he processing of personal data?

The legal basis for date processing is Article 6 Abs. 1 lit. b DSGVO (data processing for the realization of a contract).

2.4 Which personal data will be processed and for how long will it be stored?

The registration form for participants involves the processing of the following personal data upon registration: surname, first name, postcode, place of residence, details regarding university, degree programme and current semester, as well as contact details via email and, where applicable, consent to the creation of image, video and audio recordings, and their subsequent use for future networking events or surveys. The registration of mentors involves the processing of the following personal data upon enrolment: surname, first name, postcode, place of residence, company affiliation, current position/job title, degree in the relevant subject and university/cities where studies were undertaken, as well as contact details via email and, where applicable, consent to the creation of image, video and audio recordings or their reuse for subsequent networking events. The project organiser stores the data for as long as is necessary to fulfil contractual and statutory obligations. Where data is no longer required for the fulfilment of obligations, it is regularly deleted, unless its – temporary – further processing is necessary for the following purposes:

- Compliance with retention periods under commercial and tax law, such as the German Commercial Code, the German Fiscal Code, the German Banking Act, and Article 6(1)(b) and (c) of the GDPR (data processing).
- Preservation of evidence in accordance with statutory limitation periods.

2.5 Will data be transferred?

Data transfer to Dresden University of Technology

The programme is run by Dresden University of Technology, Department 8, ServiceCenterStudium, which therefore acts as a data processor (Article 28 of the GDPR).

Data transfer to Friedrich-Alexander University Erlangen-Nuremberg

The following personal data of participants from Friedrich-Alexander University (FAU) Erlangen-Nuremberg is reported to the relevant local department, the Chair of Electrical Energy Systems, 91058 Erlangen: surname, first name, degree programme, semester.

Data transfer to mentors

To facilitate the establishment of mentoring partnerships, the following data is provided to the relevant mentor in accordance with Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR: surname, first name, university, degree programme and email address of the participant

2.6 Will personal data be published?

Unless you have agreed in individual cases - No! The public will be informed about the project in an appropriate form (e.g. on the internet). We assure you that no inferences about natural persons will be possible from the publications.

A detailed privacy policy regarding the taking of photographs, video or audio recordings as part of the programme will be provided to you in a separate document.

2.7 Which are the general rights of data subjects?

To claim your rights, it is sufficient to notify the responsible person in writing (email, letter). However, the rights can only be exercised if the processed data allows for the identification of a natural person.

1) Right of access to personal data (Art. 15 GDPR)

Data subjects have the right to obtain information on the data processed concerning them, as well as possible recipients of such data, at any time. You are entitled to a reply within one month after the responsible party receives the request for information.

2) Right to rectification, erasure and restriction (Art. 16 to 18 GDPR)

Data subjects may at any time request the project organiser to rectify or erase their personal data, or to restrict its processing.

3) Right to lodge a complaint (Art. 77 GDPR)

Data subjects may contact the project organiser's data protection officer at any time and, in the event of a complaint under Article 77 of the GDPR, may also contact a data protection supervisory authority. The competent supervisory authority is:

Saxon Data Protection and Transparency Officer
Frau Dr. Juliane Hundert
Maternistr. 17
01067 Dresden

E-Mail: post@sdtb.sachsen.de
Tel.: +49(0)351/85471 101
www.datenschutz.sachsen.de

Note: To exercise your rights, a written notification (letter or email) is sufficient (see above). However, exercising your rights will only be effective if the processed data allows you to be identified.

2.8 Information on the right to object pursuant to Art. 21(1) GDPR

You have the right to object at any time, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to the processing of personal data concerning you which is carried out on the basis of Art. 6(1)(e) GDPR. The controller shall no longer process the personal data unless the controller can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.